The Kawerak General Assistance Program assists qualifying Tribal members residing in the Bering Strait Region with the following basic needs:

1. Food – This can be food directly from a local store or supplies to acquire food through subsistence activities.
2. Clothing – This can be ordinary clothing, special clothing for work and/or specific clothing needed for subsistence activities.
3. Shelter – This can be assistance with a rent or house payment.
4. Utilities – This can be assistance with electricity, water, sewer, heat, or other utilities.
5. Other Basic Necessities – This can be hygiene or cleaning supplies.

The goal of the General Assistance Program is to help eligible applicants increase self-sufficiency through an Individual Self-Sufficiency Plan, or a Case Plan if the applicant is unemployable due to certain circumstances listed on page 6 of this application.

Eligibility Criteria

☐ Applicants must have not have enough income or other resources to meet basic needs. This program follows the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) current Need Standards of Assistance for Alaska. Current income limits can be found on our webpage at https://kawerak.org/supportive-services/welfare-assistance/. You can also call the phone numbers listed above for more information.

☐ Applicants must provide proof of residency in the Bering Strait Region.

☐ Applicants must be willing to complete an initial intake assessment with a Tribal Welfare Assistance staff member.

☐ Applicants must also apply for all programs for which they may be eligible.
   This may include but is not limited to; the State of Alaska General Relief Assistance (GRA), the State of Alaska Adult Temporary Assistance Program (ATAP) also known as Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Social Security Benefits, Veterans Benefits, Senior Benefits, Adult Public Assistance (APA) and Unemployment Insurance Benefits (UIB).

☐ Applicants must not already be receiving ATAP or Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

☐ Applicants must be actively seeking employment unless exempted due to certain circumstances, please see page 6 for details.

☐ Applicants must provide proof of Tribal enrollment in a federally recognized tribe and meet residency requirements.

Tribal Enrollment and Residency Information

1. Tribal members of Nome Eskimo Community and federally recognized tribes that are located outside of the Bering Strait Region who reside in Nome must apply for General Assistance through Nome Eskimo Community (NEC) per Section 4 of NEC's Tribal Redesign Plan.
2. All tribal members of federally recognized tribes who reside in Unalakleet must apply for General Assistance through the Unalakleet IRA Office.
3. All other tribal members residing in Nome and other communities in the Bering Strait Region must apply for General Assistance through Kawerak.

* You may not be eligible if you quit a job or refused a job offer within the last 90 days for reasons within your control.
Application Checklist

The following documents or information are required in order to complete this application:

☐ General Assistance Program Application – Complete the application and attach all relevant documents, then fax or email the completed application to the numbers or email address at the top of this page before the 10th of the month.

☐ Proof of Tribal Enrollment – see your Tribal Office for assistance

☐ All Savings and Checking Account Statements – for the past 30 days

☐ Copies of Current Bills – You must provide copies of current bills in your name. We cannot assist with cut off notices, past due bills, loans, late fees or credit card payments.

☐ Verification of Residency – this can be a rent receipt, bill, bank statement, valid driver’s license, insurance card, or voter registration

☐ Proof of All Sources of Income – check stubs, paperwork from the Alaska Division of Public Assistance (DPA), Child Support, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Unemployment Benefits, Senior Benefits

☐ Proof of Application for Other Benefits – This only includes benefits you may qualify for, such as unemployment benefits, senior benefits, veterans' benefits, social security benefits, public assistance, housing assistance, utility assistance, etc... Applicants must show there are no other resources available to assist with these unmet needs. Applicants will be required to apply for the State of Alaska’s Temporary Assistance Program (ATAP) if they are the parents or legal guardians of children under 18 years of age who live with them. All applicants must apply for or be receiving assistance from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) formerly known as Food Stamps with the State of Alaska.

Case Management

1. If you are legally married, live together and your spouse meets tribal enrollment and residency requirements you can apply on the same application.

2. If you fax this application, please call us at the numbers listed on the top of this page to verify the fax came through. Incomplete applications will not be processed. Any General Assistance applications received after the 10th are considered late applications with an exception to mailed applications post marked before the 10th of the month. It can take up to 14 days to take action on any application and no longer than 30 days to determine eligibility.

3. An eligibility decision will be made on the completed, signed application within 30 days of the application date. When determining eligibility for the program, a Tribal Welfare Assistance staff member may contact your current/former employer, Public Assistance, Unemployment office, Nome Job Center, IRA, Bingo/Pull Tabs, City office & other agencies to verify the information you report in your application. We may also call others in your community if the information reported is questionable. If you are eligible for this program a determination letter will be mailed, emailed, or faxed to you.

4. The General Assistance Program pays vendors directly. You will receive a payment request form to keep track of your benefits.

5. You must agree to follow the steps in your Individual Self-Sufficiency Plan (ISP) or Case Plan. Each adult in the case must complete a separate ISP or Case Plan and separate work searches if they are employable. If there are no jobs available, eligible applicants may be required to attend appropriate trainings as part of their ISP. If eligible applicants are unable to work or attend trainings due to certain circumstances listed on page 6 of this application, they may be required to complete specific tasks as part of their Case Plan.

6. This application is required once every year. A shortened Monthly Eligibility Redetermination form is required for each subsequent month.

Household Types

There may be several people living in one house who would be considered separate “heads of household” or “households” and qualify for General Assistance. In this instance separate applications will be required.

The following are types of households:

1. Adult Only – an individual who has no dependents. If two people are legally married, both may apply on one application. If two people are not legally married, separate applications are required.

2. One Parent Who is Able to Work – a parent who has dependent children and is able to work. This parent has exhausted 60 months of ATAP through the Alaska Division of Public Assistance (DPA) and written verification can be provided from DPA.

3. Two Parents Where One Parent is Medically Exempt (Not Able to Work) – one parent is medically exempt and he or she is considered physically or mentally unable to perform gainful activity. A physician or other licensed medical professional certifies the exemption and provides a written statement. The parents have exhausted 60 months of ATAP through DPA and written verification can be provided from DPA.

NOTICE ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS

CIVIL RIGHTS

The Civil Rights Act of 1974 states “No person in the United States, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, shall be excluded from participation or be denied the benefits of federal assistance.” If you feel you have been discriminated against, you may file a complaint with Kawerak, Inc. or with the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

FAIR HEARING

Kawerak Welfare Assistance Policies – Appeals Section 7.

- § 7.1 Persons who may appeal. Any individual who has applied for services and been denied, or who claims that the level of service provided was not in compliance with the Kawerak Welfare Assistance policies and procedures or in violation of federal law, may appeal by following the fair hearing process below.

- § 7.2 Fair hearing process. When a client requests a fair hearing, the request must be in writing, signed by the client and submitted to the TWA Program Director within 20 days of the action. If the TWA Program Director is unable to resolve the situation, the hearing request will be forwarded to Kawerak’s EESS Vice President for attention and disposition. If the client is dissatisfied with the EESS Vice President’s decision, then (s)he can appeal the decision to Kawerak’s President and Board of Directors, which at its discretion may hear the appeal as a full Board or delegate the matter to a Board committee.

Kawerak is available to assist you if you request a hearing. At the hearing you may represent yourself. You may also be represented by legal counsel (e.g. – Alaska Legal Services Corporation or another person of your choice). Kawerak will not provide transportation to and from your hearing.

NOTIFICATION TO APPLICANT

The Federal law concerning fraud states… “Whoever in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States, knowingly and willingly falsifies, conceals or covers up by any trick, scheme or device a material fact, or makes any false fictitious or fraudulent statements or representations or makes or uses any false writing or documents, knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry shall be fined not more than $10,000.00 or imprisoned not more than five years or both.”

Under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552(a), Section 7(a)(1)(2), the WA Program cannot give out the information you give the caseworker with the exception of other Federal, State, Tribal Offices and other programs who have some responsibility for providing the welfare services for which you are applying. The information can also be given to those agencies when you ask them for a job or for some other benefit, and for law enforcement purposes. This can be done without your written consent. For any other person or program wanting information from your case record file, you must first give your written consent. You have a right to know what information is inaccurate, ask your caseworker about how to change the information in the case record.

Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 S.244 The sections of this chapter are to minimize the paperwork burden for individuals, small businesses, educational and nonprofit institutions, federal contractors, State, local and tribal governments, and other persons resulting from the collection of information by or for the federal government. Kawerak has this act available and attached to this application.

By signing below, I understand and have read or explained to me the Federal Law concerning Fraud, provision of my protection under the Privacy Act and the Paperwork Reduction Act.
