REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL
Regional Housing Community Survey Data Analysis

Introduction and Background

Housing Strategic Plan

- Pursue access to safe and affordable housing in every community
- Assist in long-range planning and preparations for construction and renovations
- Focus on housing that aligns with family structure, culture and lifestyle
- Coordinate housing development with other infrastructure development

Summary

Our project will serve 19 tribes in our region and afford an opportunity to five of those tribes who are either managing their own projects or have relocated to the city of Nome proper.

Proposal Conditions and Information

Proposals must be received by Kawerak, Inc. Tribal Housing by 5:00 p.m. on August 30, 2024. Kawerak, Inc. encourages early submission of proposals.

Proposer shall submit one electronic version of the proposal including any supporting documentation to:

Gloria Karmun, Tribal Housing Director
Email: gkarmun@kawerak.org

Questions regarding this proposal must be submitted in writing to Gloria Karmun.

Scope of Work

The Tribal Housing staff will conduct Regional Housing Needs Assessment Community Surveys in the 19 communities we serve. The purpose of the survey is to identify the housing needs in our region.

The survey assessment will be presented during a Housing Summit to be conducted in January or February 2025 in Nome, Alaska. A firm date and meeting location will be announced.
