If you are determined eligible, below are your rights and responsibilities for participating in this program.

Your Rights

- To participate fully in the development of your own Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE).
- To be treated with dignity.
- To have your eligibility for services determined within 60 days, unless there are unforeseen circumstances and you agree to extend the time.
- To receive a fair and complete evaluation to determine your eligibility.
- To have your records and communication kept confidential. Information will not be released without your written permission, unless under court order.
- To make informed choices during the time you are participating in the Kawerak Vocational Rehabilitation Program.
- To appeal the Vocational Rehabilitation decisions through an Informal Review, Mediation, or formal Hearing if necessary.
- To have access to the Client Assistance Program for problem resolution. (CAP – Counselor)
- To access and receive services in a barrier free environment, including communication access and written information in an alternate format.
- To receive appropriate Assistive Technology assessments that lead to employment.

Your Responsibilities

- To take an active role in the development, implementation and completion of your IPE.
- To request disability related accommodations you require.
- To apply for and secure needed sources of funding for which you may be eligible for such as financial aid (scholarships, insurance benefits, other public assistance, etc.)
- To actively participate and maintain regular contact with your vocational rehabilitation counselor.
- To talk with your counselor if you are having a problem that is affecting your vocational plan.
- To actively seek and gain employment.

I have reviewed the above program participant rights and responsibilities. The Kawerak Vocational Rehabilitation Program staff have answered all questions I have about my rights and responsibilities, though I know I may ask questions about my rights or responsibilities at any time while receiving services. I understand that I may request a copy of this from at any time.

Kawerak Vocational Rehabilitation (KVR) staff are committed to providing professional quality assistance and support to individuals with disabilities in efforts to attain vocational goals.

Program participants are assured that their confidentiality will be maintained in all matters, and a HIPPA Compliant Authorization for the Exchange of Protected Information will be signed before any information is released to a third party.

If a program participant believes there is a problem with services received through the KVR Program, the program participant is to report this so that the KVR Program can address the needs of the individual, and investigate the problem to determine ways to improve services for all program participants. All program participant complaints will be investigated as objectively and fairly as possible by seeking information on the issue from providers, program participant records, and other sources. All investigations will be maintained as confidential. Program participant complaints will be heard promptly and resolved to the extent possible to the satisfaction of both the aggrieved individual and the service provider.

PROCEDURES:

1. The program participant or other individual making a complaint about KVR Program services may communicate either verbally or in writing to the Education, Employment and Supportive Services (EESs) Division - Vice President, Luisa Machuca.

2. The EESs Division Vice President will request from the program participant basic information concerning the complaint such as: name, birth date, dates, location, employee(s) involved, nature of the complaint, and request for action.

3. The EESs Division Vice President will advise the program participant of the intended follow-up plan for his/her complaint to include a plan and means of response.

4. The EESs Division Vice President shall work through the Kawerak Human Resources Department to investigate the complaint and prepare a summary of findings. Additional information may be requested of the program participant as necessary. An employee involved in an investigation of complaint is expected to respond within five working days.

5. The EESs Division Vice President shall respond to the program participant concerning the investigation findings within 30 days, or as agreed to in the follow-up plan, either verbally or in writing.

6. The EESs Division Vice President will review all written communication with the program participant before being mailed.

7. If a satisfactory resolution to the complaint is not reached through the preceding actions, the program participant may appeal in writing to the Kawerak Executive Vice President, Mary David, who will review the record and respond within 10 working days. If no agreement is reached the appeal then goes to the President of Kawerak Inc., Melanie Bahnke.

If the program participant chooses not to handle his or her problem internally, the Alaska Client Assistance Program (CAP) is always available to help any person who has issues with any vocational rehabilitation program. They can be reached toll-free at 1-800-478-1234 or write to them at 330 Arctic Blvd., Suite 103, Anchorage AK 99503.
Appeals Process

If the applicant expresses dissatisfaction with the decision for denial of services, the person making the decision will review with him/her the basis for which the decision was made and confirm the validity of facts and the related decision. If error was made or new additional evidence justifies modifying the decision, appropriate adjustments will be made.

If the applicant continues to be dissatisfied after the above review, the applicant has the right to appeal the denial within twenty (15) days of receipt of such denial. A longer period may be allowed if adequate justification supports the applicant’s request. The applicant must submit a written request to the Division Vice-President of Kawerak, Inc. requesting a hearing and explaining the reasons for which the hearing is requested. The hearing will be held within ten (5) days. The Division Vice-President of Kawerak, Inc. shall notify the applicant in writing of the date and time of the hearing.

When a hearing is requested, the appropriate program staff will submit a written statement regarding the issue(s), facts and policy upon which the decision was based, to the Division Vice-President. A copy of this statement will be available to the applicant upon request prior to the scheduled hearing.

The applicant may appear in person at the designated time and place of the hearing; however it is the applicant’s responsibility to make all arrangements and to pay for any expense that may be incurred. If the applicant cannot appear in person, the hearing will continue to take place. Arrangements may be made for a telephonic hearing.

If a hearing is held and the appealing party does not participate either in person or via the telephone, the appeal shall be decided on the basis of the information contained in the appeal letter and on available written information. Individuals filing an appeal shall be informed of the Vice-President’s decision within five (5) days of the hearing and any further avenues of appeal.

If the applicant continues to be dissatisfied after the above review, the applicant has the right to appeal the denial within twenty (10) days of receipt of such denial. A longer period may be allowed if adequate justification supports the applicant’s request. The applicant must submit a written request to the President of Kawerak, Inc. of the requesting a hearing and explaining the reasons for which the hearing is requested.

When a hearing is requested, the Division Vice-President will submit a written statement regarding the issue(s), facts and policy upon which the decision was based, to the President. A copy of this statement will be available to the applicant upon request prior to the scheduled hearing.

The applicant may appear in person at the designated time and place of the hearing; however it is the applicant’s responsibility to make all arrangements and to pay for any expense that may be incurred. If the applicant cannot appear in person, the hearing will continue to take place. Arrangements may be made for a telephonic hearing.

If a hearing is held and the appealing party does not participate either in person or via the telephone, the appeal shall be decided on the basis of the information contained in the appeal letter and on available written information. Individuals filing an appeal shall be informed of the President’s decision within five (5) days of the hearing and any further avenues of appeal.

At any time during the appeals process, the applicant has the right to be represented by someone of his/her choice, including an attorney at his/her expense. Hearings may be re-scheduled under extenuating circumstances. Applicant grievances shall take no longer and be resolved within 60 days.

If the applicant continues to be dissatisfied, the grievant may appeal at the Federal level. Questions about or complaints alleging a violation of the nondiscrimination provisions of WIA section 188 may be directed or mailed directly to: the Director, Civil Rights Center, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-4123, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20210
