Appeals Process

If the applicant expresses dissatisfaction with the decision for denial of services, the person making the decision will review with him/her the basis for which the decision was made and confirm the validity of facts and the related decision. If error was made or new additional evidence justifies modifying the decision, appropriate adjustments will be made.

If the applicant continues to be dissatisfied after the above review, the applicant has the right to appeal the denial within twenty (15) days of receipt of such denial. A longer period may be allowed if adequate justification supports the applicant's request. The applicant must submit a written request to the Division Vice-President of Kawerak, Inc. requesting a hearing and explaining the reasons for which the hearing is requested. The hearing will be held within ten (5) days. The Division Vice-President of Kawerak, Inc. shall notify the applicant in writing of the date and time of the hearing.

When a hearing is requested, the appropriate program staff will submit a written statement regarding the issue(s), facts and policy upon which the decision was based, to the Division Vice-President. A copy of this statement will be available to the applicant upon request prior to the scheduled hearing.

The applicant may appear in person at the designated time and place of the hearing; however it is the applicant's responsibility to make all arrangements and to pay for any expense that may be incurred. If the applicant cannot appear in person, the hearing will continue to take place. Arrangements may be made for a telephonic hearing.

If a hearing is held and the appealing party does not participate either in person or via the telephone, the appeal shall be decided on the basis of the information contained in the appeal letter and on available written information. Individuals filing an appeal shall be informed of the Vice-President's decision within five (5) days of the hearing and any further avenues of appeal.

If the applicant continues to be dissatisfied after the above review, the applicant has the right to appeal the denial within twenty (10) days of receipt of such denial. A longer period may be allowed if adequate justification supports the applicant's request. The applicant must submit a written request to the President of Kawerak, Inc. of the requesting a hearing and explaining the reasons for which the hearing is requested.

When a hearing is requested, the Division Vice-President will submit a written statement regarding the issue(s), facts and policy upon which the decision was based, to the President. A copy of this statement will be available to the applicant upon request prior to the scheduled hearing.

The applicant may appear in person at the designated time and place of the hearing; however it is the applicant's responsibility to make all arrangements and to pay for any expense that may be incurred. If the applicant cannot appear in person, the hearing will continue to take place. Arrangements may be made for a telephonic hearing.

If a hearing is held and the appealing party does not participate either in person or via the telephone, the appeal shall be decided on the basis of the information contained in the appeal letter and on available written information. Individuals filing an appeal shall be informed of the President's decision within five (5) days of the hearing and any further avenues of appeal.

At any time during the appeals process, the applicant has the right to be represented by someone of his/her choice, including an attorney at his/her expense. Hearings may be re-scheduled under extenuating circumstances. Applicant grievances shall take no longer and be resolved within 60 days.

If the applicant continues to be dissatisfied, the grievant may appeal at the Federal level. Questions about or complaints alleging a violation of the nondiscrimination provisions of WIA section 188 may be directed or mailed directly to: the Director, Civil Rights Center, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-4123, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20210
