After a mysterious death, Kaujak and Sapa are separated despite being promised to each other at birth. With the help of spirit guides, efforts are made to restore harmony in this Arctic fairy tale set in an Inuit community. Award-winning Canadian Inuit director Zacharias Kunuk is best known for his 2001 feature film Atanarjuat: The Fast Runner.

Q&A with filmmaker Bjørn Olson

1:30:00 min • Bjørn Olson

This film is a window into a unique American community confronting a challenge more daunting than anything in their millennia-old history — global warming. The film probes two questions: can their culture survive ours, and can ours learn from theirs before it's too late?
